LEARNING CONTEXT

Youth Exchanges supported by the Erasmus+ programme offer groups of young people from different countries an opportunity to jointly design, prepare and carry out a non-formal learning programme on a topic of their interest. This usually involves a mix of workshops, debates, role-plays, simulations and outdoor activities. The learning process, which is supported by youth workers and leaders, includes the preparation, implementation and follow-up of the exchange.

COMPETENCES DEVELOPED BY VERA SHEVTSOVA

The following summary is the result of a reflection and self-assessment process which took place during and after the project.

Multilingual competence

The exchange allowed young people to put their knowledge in English to use and improve their oral expression and its comprehension.

Personal, social and learning to learn competence

Time, materials and space management, communication and teamwork, organisation, tolerance, solidarity, co-living, adaptability, friendship and empathy.

Citizenship competence

Living with other young people from different cultures, peer education, conflict resolution, greater communication skills, knowledge and understanding of people different from you, tolerance, active participation, social and cultural awareness.

Entrepreneurship competence

Decision-making, teamwork, creativity, flexibility and initiative.

Cultural awareness and expression competence

Participants improved their ability to act autonomously, to propose solutions and to have initiative.

Digital competence

Use of offline and online tools, creation of logo and interactive map, use of Social Media and Emailing, online forms, use of cameras and mobile phones.

The competence description in Youthpass is based on the European Union framework for Key Competences for Lifelong Learning:
<https://education.ec.europa.eu/focus-topics/improving-quality-equity/key-competences-lifelong-learning>

Literacy competence

The exchange helped participants to communicate, resolve conflicts appropriately, and understand others' values and customs. Furthermore, acceptance, understanding, knowing how to listen, having empathy, and a sense of respect are key elements of personal development that participants increased.
